

AUSTRALIA'S SUSTAINABLE FOREST INDUSTRY

working with Pacific Island nations

ForestWorks supported by the Australian Government and the Australian forest industries are working in Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands and Indonesia to demonstrate approaches to sustainable forest management.

We are working together in country with industry associations, trade unions, land owner groups and governments.

For more information go to:

www.forestworks.com.au

Proudly funded and supported by:

